

ECC held a training seminar with PECC's members

The seminar was held from June 30th to July 2th at the Kabul Serena Hotel and was attended by 255 people, including members of the Provincials Electoral Complaints Commissions (PECC) and staff of the Electoral Complaints Commission (ECC).

The objectives of the seminar were to improve the knowledge and the capacity of PECC and ECC in issues such as electoral legislation in different countries, the main features of the afghan electoral law, the functions of the Electoral Complaints Commissions, the different strategies and methods for the resolution of conflicts and the codes of conduct and procedures that ECC staff and PECC members must follow in all of their daily activities.

The seminar was the first of a workshop series specially designed and organized to strength the capacity of ECC network members in order to contribute to a fair and free election. Shortly, the ECC will give more details on upcoming workshops to be held at Kabul and other provinces and also the topics to be discussed.
